All,

I spoke with Merrill after our call today and he agreed - subject to further conversations with his client - that (1) consolidation of the four petitions would be appropriate; (2) one joint 14,000 word brief among the intervenors would be insufficient; and (3) staggering EPA's and the intervenors' briefs made sense.

Merrill, please correct me if I misrepresented anything.

Ryan

All,
Paul Spruhan from Navajo Nation. The 3:00 to 4:30 eastern on Thursday is the best time for me. Thanks.

I can do either 2:30 or the 3:00 to 4:30 eastern window on Thursday. On Friday I unfortunately just had another call scheduled from 12-1 eastern, but I could still do 11:30 to 12 eastern, or 1:30 to 2 eastern that day (I have another call at 2 eastern on Friday).

Ryan: We can be available at 2:30, although 3:00 to 4:30 pm Eastern on Thursday would work better for us if others are available at that time.

Thanks,

Aaron

All,

I represent proposed intervenor CAWCD in connection with the four petitions for review recently filed in the 9th Circuit concerning EPA's NGS rule. Dan Dertke (DOJ) and I spoke today and thought it would make sense for the proposed intervenors to have a conference call to discuss a potential briefing schedule and coordination moving forward.

Would everyone be available for a call tomorrow afternoon at 2:30? If that time does not work, both Dan and I are available later in the afternoon on Thursday or any time between 11:30 and 1:30 on Friday.

Best,

Ryan Smith
